Adam Lawrence-Slater

Adam lives in Sydney with his wife Charlotte and their 12yr old son Joshua who was diagnosed with Fragile X syndrome and Autism when he was two. After completing a Bachelor of Economics degree Adam worked at Qantas for 24 years in commercial planning, strategy and operational roles. This year Adam started in a financial planning and insights role at Hireup, an NDIS online platform that enables people with a disability to find the right support workers for them. He is a passionate disability advocate and would like to help improve the outcomes of people in the Fragile X community and the effectiveness of the NDIS. He enjoys taking the dog to the beach with the family, golf, skiing, and travel.

Karen Lipworth

Karen is a qualified veterinarian currently working as key accounts manager in the Animal Health division of MSD Australia. Prior to moving into industry Karen worked as a veterinarian in small animal practices both in the UK and in Australia. Karen has the Fragile X pre-mutation and is passionate about raising awareness of Fragile X and the pre-mutation amongst the medical profession. Karen lives in Sydney.
