Sunday 8 March 2020
1:00 - 4:30pm
Australian Catholic University
Strathfield campus

SUPPORTING CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE WHO HAVE FRAGILE X SYNDROME

Daily living skills and learning strategies

Understanding Fragile X
- What affects daily living skills
- Understanding anxiety in Fragile X
- The Fragile X learning style
- Supportive environments
- Stages of development
- Fragile X and girls

Practical tips and strategies
for a range of settings:
- At home
- Learning environments
- In the community

Presented by
Dr Marcia Braden PhD
Psychologist
Fragile X specialist

Designed for:
- Parents and family members
- Educators
- Allied health professionals
- Everyone with an interest in Fragile X

More information:
1300 394 646
or www.fragilex.org.au

BOOK NOW!
$55 Standard ticket
$35 Members (2 for $60)
$15 Student

www.trybooking.com/BICIG

This event has been supported by:

Dr Jonathan Cohen, medical director of Fragile X Alliance, will outline the latest on medications.